Then we want to work with you!

Closing Date: Friday 26th January 2024

Location: Remote

Salary: £10.90 p/h

Type: Casual (approximately 20 hours per annum)

About SEER and the Student Advisory Panel

The SEER (Specialist Evidence, Evaluation and Research) partnership provides a range of data, evaluation, monitoring and research services to small and specialist Higher Education providers.

The newly developed SEER Student Advisory Panel is being established to challenge, advise and improve the SEER service and its operations. Students on the panel will work in partnership with and advise the SEER team and more broadly SEER members, representing the interests of students on matters of access and participation, inclusion, and diversity. Student Panel members will bring their experiences, considerations and thoughts to contribute to decision-making on key issues including student life, learning and support within and beyond Higher Education.

Job Description: Duties and Responsibilities

- Attend relevant training and networking events provided by SEER
- Prepare for the Student Advisory Panel meetings, including reading papers
- Attending the Student Advisory Panel meetings at least twice a year
- Where applicable, represent the SEER Student Advisory Panel at various fora, including the SEER Steering Group.

Person Specification

This role would suit a student who is:

- Enthusiastic about improving the quality of education that they and other students receive.
- Confident in speaking to people from different backgrounds and expertise.
- Motivated to create positive change.
- Looking for a future career which involves representing a diverse group of people and organisations.
- Looking for future career development within Higher Education, such as your Student Union, or beyond University

Particular encouragement will be given in recruitment to students from backgrounds underrepresented in HE (this includes students from low socio-economic backgrounds, students with disabilities, global majority, care experienced students, mature students, refugees and asylum seekers, gypsy and Roma, LGBTQ).
